Dear Miss Markham.

Thank you for your letter telling me of the kind invitation from the Council to present the Certificates and speak to the "Internationals" on June 30th It is with real regret I am writing to say I am unable to accept this invitation, which I regard as an honour, and am all the more sorry I cannot do what you ask. With all good wishes for the International Congress. I am
Yours very sincerely

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

Thank you for your letter telling me of the kind invitation from the Council to present the Certificates and speak to the Internationals on June 30th. It is with real regret I am writing to say I am unable to accept this invitation, which I regard as an honour, and am all the more sorry I cannot do what you ask. With all good wishes for the International Course,

I am,

Yours very sincerely,
