

1967

all time history 5.

Lectures in public health, sanitary engineering and (physiology) are arranged for the International students by the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, and the visits of instruction in connection with these lectures are also arranged in liaison with the lecturers concerned.