23rd September 1939.

Dear Miss Bridges,

I am writing on behalf of the Council of Bedford College and of the College of Nursing to say how greatly it is regretted that in view of the cancellation of the International Courses your services as Tutor to the students will not be required in the immediate future. It is fully appreciated that according to the terms of your appointment you are due to have three months' notice of the cessation of your work, but I am to ask whether, in view of the national emergency, you would be willing to waive this claim and accept termination of your appointment as from 30th September 1939.

I am to thank you very much for the valuable work which you have done among the International students during the past year and to say that it is greatly hoped that future conditions will enable it to be resumed.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary of Council.
