

196

July 24th, 1926.

Dear Madam,

Thank you for your letter of the 19th July, which I must apologise for not having answered sooner. I waited to get into touch with Mrs. Carter about the matter. The 11 guineas which you received from Bedford College was for the session and inclusive of the 5 guineas which you received from the League of Red Cross Societies last Christmas. You have therefore received an over payment of 5 guineas. If you would be good enough to make repayment of this amount direct to Mrs. Carter it would be a great convenience.

Yours truly,

Secretary.
