5th June 1928.

Dear Miss Dorsey,

I enclose a list of the people to be invited to your opening ceremony on Tuesday, July 17th. You will see that I have included officials of the University and a number of members of the Staff of the London School of Medicine. I have not mentioned the officials of the chief Hospitals and other medical bodies because I presume you do this yourselves. I shall be sending later a list of French Rectors and Professors who are to be in England at that time under the auspices of the League of Empire. If there is anything else you want, please let me know.

8 lines in the list below.
Are you putting "Academic Dress" on the card?

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.

Miss Dorsey,
League of Red Cross Societies,
15 Manchester Square,
London, W.1.
