

196

22nd May 1928.

Dear Sir,

As Principal of Bedford College I am writing to say how gratified we are to learn that you are coming to lecture to our Summer School at Bedford College in August next.

We are much looking forward to the honour of welcoming you here where your presence will be greatly appreciated by all concerned.

Yours truly,

Principal.

Professor A. Ley,
University of Brussels,
Brussels.