28th March 1933.

Dear Madam,

The Council of Bedford College at their meeting last week learnt that the Provisional Committee for the organisation of the International Courses for 1933-34 had asked the League of Red Cross Societies to carry out all arrangements for the organisation of the courses for that session. At the request of the League the Council of Bedford College has agreed to carry on the courses in conjunction with the College of Nursing.

In accordance with this decision I am to ask whether the College of Nursing can again make arrangements for Miss Parsons to continue her work as Tutor to the Nurse Administrator students for the session 1933-34.

Yours truly,

Secretary.
