Dear Miss Monkhouse:

I understand that you are having a meeting of your Council tomorrow, when no doubt you would like to be able to put forward some answer, however incomplete it may be, to the queries raised in your letter of the 22nd December last. You will quite understand that owing to the disturbance of the Christmas holidays, during which there are no Committee meetings and when many of our senior Staff were absent, it was impossible for me to bring the matter up for discussion. The scheme as indicated in your letter is a very attractive one, but as it is a wide and comprehensive one it must touch a great many interests, not the least of which is that connected with the administration of our Medical School and the teaching of the students. I must therefore ask your Council to realize that we must have further time for consideration before writing you a letter to say how far we can afford the practical training which your Council outlines.

I am,
Yours very truly,

Treasurer .
