

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION.

Miss Gergana Balabanova will return to Bulgaria to work in the State School of Nursing to help in training Public Health Nurses.

Miss G. M. Ross. has been recently appointed to take an organizing position with the Ontario Society for Crippled Children.

Miss E. Smith will return to her post as Instructor in Health Education Provincial Normal School, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan.

Miss A. Krohn will remain in England for training in Hospital Social Service before returning to Finland.

Miss A. Clamageran will return to her post of Tutor for Public Health Nurses, S.S.B.N., School for Nurses, Rouen.

Miss E. Behrendt is going back to Hospital Social Service work in the Augusta-Hospital, Berlin, under the German Red Cross.

Miss D. M. Dickinson intends to return to Hospital work in England.

Miss P. R. Williamson is expecting to obtain a Health Visitor's post in England.

Miss C. Grosskopf will be returning to work for the Mothercraft Training Centre, Cape Town, South Africa.

Miss F. Norman will be returning to South Africa to do District and Public Health work in Durban.

Miss M. Veilands is staying on in England to take a further course in Hospital Social Service before returning to Latvia.

Miss J. I. Masten will return to Canada as Sister-in-Charge of Out-Patients Department, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Miss C. C. Murray intends to return to her work as a teacher in a Canadian School of Nursing.

Miss A. Pade will return to Denmark as Assistant Matron, St. Hans Hospital, Roskilde.

Miss M. Demol is returning to work in a Nurses Training School in France.

Miss I.B.H.RENTON has been appointed Ward Sister at the Kent & Canterbury Hospital. She will sit for the Diploma of Nursing of the London University in the autumn.

Miss M. H. Sasburg Teaching work in a Hospital in Holland.

Miss E. M. Kopstad will return to Norway as the Superintendent of a Nurses' Home in Tonsberg.

Miss H. C. Fick will return to South Africa as Matron of a Midwifery Training School.

Miss F. Kemal Eneren will return to Turkey as the Sister Tutor at Red Crescent Training School, Istanbul.

Miss M.L. Zilley intends to continue her teaching in a Training School for Nurses in the United States.