

13th February 1930.

Dear Mrs. Carter,

Sir Arthur Stanley cannot manage either the 8th, 9th or 10th of July for the Presentation of Certificates. July 7th and 11th are both possible for him and for us. We should prefer the 11th because Mrs. Reid thinks July 7th is too great a rush for the students. Miss Dorsey has been consulted and prefers that the students should be late in getting off rather than a rush to get ready by the 7th. Will you be good enough to let me know by return which date you would like me to fix?

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
