

23rd November 1938.

Dear Miss Baggallay,

In the summer we had a number of press-cuttings about the Presentation Ceremony. I have reserved the one from the Times for the College press-cutting book but I thought that you might like to have one or more of these. If you do not want them, please destroy them.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.