8th March 1928.

Dear Mrs. Carter,

At the meeting of the International Committee the following resolutions were passed:-

"That in addition to the lectures already arranged, Miss Ryman, Secretary of the International Council of Nursing be invited to give one morning lecture on "Nursing Legislation and Organisation."

"That Mrs. Carter be asked to approach Miss Ryman in the matter."

The Committee were very anxious to secure Miss Ryman for this purpose, and felt convinced that you were the only one to approach her. Will you be good enough to let me know what Miss Ryman's answer is as soon as you receive it.

We are now asking Lord Cecil to open the Summer School as both Dr. George Vincent and Professor Gilbert Murray have refused.

The next meeting of the Committee is fixed for Friday May 4th at 5 p.m. Please note it in your diary as some important final decisions about the Summer School will then have to be made.

You will I know be glad to hear that the scheme for carrying on the practical work under the auspices of St. Thomas' Hospital has been accepted by them tentatively for two years.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
