Dear Madam,

Miss Brooks, Secretary and Warden of the London School of Medicine for Women, has forwarded your letter addressed to Lady Barrett to me as Lady Barrett is at present abroad.

I feel quite sure that Lady Barrett would be pleased to open the Summer School for you on July 17th if she is free and as far as I can foretell she will be, but I am afraid I must consult her before sending a definite reply. Letters are taking rather a long time to reach her and it may therefore be the end of next week before I hear from her. If that is putting you to any great inconvenience Lady Barrett would of course understand if in the meantime you prefer to ask someone else.

You do not mention in your letter at what time in the afternoon the Opening of the Summer School would take place - Lady Barrett has a Hospital Board Meeting early in the afternoon.

Yours very truly,

M. Roberts.

Sec.

Miss Tuke, M.A.
