

10/6.1

10th June 1933.

Dear Mrs. Carter,

You will see from the enclosed letter which I have sent to Sir Arthur Stanley that Sir George Buchanan is unable to be with us on June 23rd. If you do not approve of the suggestions made to Sir Arthur Stanley, will you be good enough to cable me on Monday morning? If I do not hear from you I shall take silence for consent.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
