23rd September 192

Dear Mrs. Carter,

I have just got back from my vacation and have been studying your letters which arrived about ten days ago.

I quite agree with your remarks in your letter of September 9th about the minutes of our last meeting. Your emendations are entirely in accordance with my notes. Thank you for pointing out the mistakes.

I will try to get the outlines still needed for the new syllabus as soon as possible and will let you have them the moment I receive them, but as some of the Lecturers are still on vacation it will be a little difficult to procure the detail you are asking for.

I am glad to hear you are going to be in London from October 3rd as we shall then be able to talk things over before the meeting.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
