Dear Miss Monkhouse,

I enclose a letter from Mr. Mace recommending that Miss Robertson, one of the International students, be allowed to attend the lectures of Dr. Hadfield at King's College; I endorse the recommendation.

With regard to the latter part of his letter asking for some guidance with regard to future applications for outside courses, I suppose we cannot say anything to him except:

- a. That such courses may be recommended where they are academically desirable.
- b. That each case must be considered on its merits.
- c. That recommendations should be sparingly made.

I should like to have your views on this point.

Yours sincerely,

H. James
