

28th January 1932.

Dear Sir Arthur Stanley,

At the last meeting of the Committee for the Organisation of Courses for International Students, the suggestion that Miss Margery Fry or failing her the Duchess of Atholl should be invited to make the chief speech and present the certificates to the International Students next summer was very favourably received. I am asked to submit these suggestions to you for your approval. I believe I am right in thinking that the invitation goes from you. If you would like the committee to reconsider these proposals, will you be good enough to let me know as the next meeting of the committee is being fixed for Friday February 5th.

The date suggested for the ceremony is either July 11th or 12th in accordance with your convenience. The committee would be grateful to know whether they may fix either of these dates.

Yours truly,

Secretary.
