Dear Miss Russell,

Please tell Dr Russell that I cannot possibly attend on Monday next at 12.30.

I saw Sir Hugh Owen, Secretary to the Local Government Board at the Royal Society Conversazione on Friday night and spoke to him on the subject of the Bedford College Examination being accepted for Sanitary Inspectors, but he seems strongly to lean to the scheme of a Joint Board examining on behalf of the Sanitary Institute.

However I think you will do very well to raise the question by a letter to the Local Government Board based upon Mr Newton Robinson's ^{draft} Resolutions, and followed up by a request for them to receive a small Deputation.

Yours faithfully

Geo. Robt
