Dear Miss Monkhouse,

Thank you for letting me see the Draft Report which you are preparing for our Grand Council. I think it is a very excellent report and I cannot make any suggestions as to additional matter, I think it is very complete. I wondered whether you would wish to put in the paragraph on page 1, giving details of the students who have attended the course, since this does already appear in the Chairman's Report, a copy of which I enclose for your information.

It may, of course, be better that it should appear again in your Report, in which case I leave it to you to decide. I should be very glad of the official draft as soon as you can let me have it.

Yours sincerely,

Olive Baggallay
