12th June 1933.

Dear Mrs. Carter,

Thank you very much for your wire this morning. Sir Arthur Stanley thinks the plan a good one, so I am writing to ask whether you will be good enough to ask Dr. Masarykova to make a speech on June 23rd. Mrs. Reid says she will do it better than anyone else possibly could as she is an excellent speaker, has a good command of English and knows her subject through and through.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
