20th January 1933.

Dear Colonel Parkinson,

Thank you very much for your note of the 19th January. I do not think there was any real misunderstanding at the committee meeting on Monday last and I agree with you that it ought not to be difficult to find the correct phraseology.

It is most satisfactory that the interim period has been so well provided for.

Will you kindly let me know as soon as you have bounded Dr. Boudreau about speaking at the Presentation of Certificates in June next. When I hear from you that he is willing to be approached, I will send him an official invitation from the Council. You may like to know that we have had to change the date of the Presentation of Certificates from Tuesday June 27th to Monday June 26th in order to meet the wishes of Sir Arthur Stanley and the members of this College.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
