

BCA1336/26/3
CHEMICAL PATHOLOGY.

The Middlesex Hospital Medical School
(University of London)

Courtauld Institute of Biochemistry

Sub-Department of Chemical Pathology

Jubilee Year 1928-1978

The Middlesex Hospital Medical School
Mortimer Street
London W1P 7PN
Telephone 01-636 8333 ext

Miss M Ferguson
Director of Nursing Studies
Bedford College
Department of Sociology
Regent's Park
London
NW1 4NS

Dear Miss Ferguson

I do apologise for the delay in sending you this course outline for the Nursing Studies degree course. Life has been somewhat disorganised for the last couple of months.

Yours sincerely

A L Miller

Enc

1 unit = 160 hrs = 12 = 80 hrs = 3 hrs per week = 1st Term 30 2nd: " 30 3rd: " 20 Physiology + Anatomy: 1 1/2 units ? Biological Science: only 2-2 1/2 units: ? not sufficient: pathophysiology, Microbiology = 3rd year Hospital hygiene.	Requirement: 20 more lectures (HISTOPATHOLOGY)
--	---

CHEMICAL PATHOLOGY.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY,

21st July, 1981.

Dr. A.L. Miller,
Courtauld Institute of Biochemistry,
Dept. of Chemical Pathology,
The Middlesex Hospital Med.School,
Mortimer Street,
London W1P 7PN.

Dear Dr. Miller,

Further to our talk and telephone conversation, I should be most grateful to you for sending me your curriculum outline for the chemical pathology course you expressed an interest in teaching.

Yours sincerely,

M. Ferguson,
Director - Nursing Studies.

The Middlesex Hospital Medical School
(University of London)

Courtauld Institute of Biochemistry

Sub-Department of Chemical Pathology

Jubilee Year 1928-1978

The Middlesex Hospital Medical School
Mortimer Street
London W1P 7PN
Telephone 01-636 8333 ext 7143

ALM/MH

5th June 1981

Marion Ferguson,
Director of Nursing Studies,
Bedford College,
Regents Park,
London,
N.W.1.

Dear Miss Ferguson,

Re: B.Sc. degree in Nursing Studies
Bedford College/Middlesex Hospital

Thank you for your letter. I would be interested in taking part in this course but would welcome an opportunity to discuss the content of any contribution I might make with you. Would you be kind enough to telephone me so that we can fix a date for me to see you which is mutually convenient.

Yours sincerely,

A.L. Miller

The Middlesex Hospital Medical School
Middlesex Street
London W1P 7LN
Telephone: 01-253 7143

Courts Institute of Biochemistry
5th Floor, 100 Brook Street
London W1 4BS
Jubilee Year 1928-1978

25th June 1978

6 hr
184 hrs
Applicants: 200
14 F. (A)
35 CP (Coulter)

105 places

15 for -
Chdse?

7 travel

Dr. S. G. ...
Middlesex Hospital

Thank you for your letter. I would be interested in taking part in this course but would welcome an opportunity to discuss the content of any contribution I might make with you. Would you be kind enough to telephone me so that we can fix a date for me to see you which is mutually convenient.

Yours sincerely,

A. J. Miller