Miss Olive Monkhouse,
Secretary, Bedford College for Women,
Regent's Park, LONDON N.W.1.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

The memorandum from the Council of Bedford College on the practical implications of the Report of the Study Committee of the Florence Nightingale International Foundation was received by the Committee of Management at its meeting on Saturday, November 28th 1936. The comments on pages 3 and 4 of the memorandum part (B) have been included verbatim in Part B of the final memorandum prepared by the Committee of Management to be circulated with the Report of the Study Committee to all member countries of the Foundation.

Certain of the opinions expressed by your Council in the first section of their report were endorsed by the Committee of Management and were included in Part A of their memorandum.

I am enclosing a copy of this memorandum for your information.

Yours sincerely,

Olive Baggallay

Olive Baggallay
Secretary.
