Department of Science and Art, London, S.W.
(Telegraphic address, "Science Art, London.")

8th August, 1896.

Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 28th ultimo, I am directed to acquaint you that, on further consideration of the matter and in view of a report which has been received from Professor Lane Nottter, it has been decided that the Certificate in Hygiene awarded by the Council of Bedford College may be accepted as qualifying the person obtaining it to earn payments on account of instruction in that subject, provided that the percentage of marks gained is such as to satisfy the Department of the sufficiency of the knowledge possessed by her. It must, however, be understood that no general authority for the recognition of holders of the Certificates ^{in question} can be given, and that it will be necessary to submit each year the names of the candidates whose recognition is sought, the percentage of marks obtained by each in the examination, and copies of the papers set. All qualifications granted will be individual.

I am,

Madam,

Your obedient Servant,

G. F. Dunscombe
