Dear Madam,

I am very greatly honoured by the invitation conveyed in your letter of January 30th, to attend the first ceremony of Presentation of Certificates to students at Bedford College for Women, under the auspices of the Florence Nightingale International Foundation, and to give an address. I am afraid it is very difficult for me to know whether I shall be able to come to London in July, as exigences of work may require my presence elsewhere. If, however, you would allow me to leave the question open, I would very gladly accept your invitation in principle, and should I not be able to attend personally I would ask my deputy, Dr. F. G. Boudreau, to deliver the address for me.

Yours truly,

(s) L. RAJCHMAN.
