4th December 1933.

Dear Miss Morris,

Mrs. Reid has handed to me your letter to her of December 1st and I am writing to say that the notice of the meeting was definitely an invitation to you to attend as a member of the committee. Please accept my apologies if you have not had a formal invitation asking you to serve. This should have been sent to you after the meeting of the Organisation Committee last summer but I knew Mrs. Reid was in communication with you about the matter so I fear the letter of invitation may have got left out.

The Committee will, I know be glad to see Miss Roxburgh at the meeting next Friday, but it is hoped that you will be able to spare time to come too as the committee value your help very much.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
