15th June 1928.

Dear Miss Melhuish,

I do not know whether you have yet heard from the League of Red Cross Societies about the work you are going to do for them at their Summer School in July, but in case you are still in doubt the arrangements are as follows:-

Hospitality is offered you at Bedford College and a fee of 4 guineas per lecture for your course of lectures on "The Principles of Education."

The Summer School opens officially on Tuesday, July 17th but its activities actually begin on Monday evening, July 16th when Mrs. John Glenn is to give an Evening Lecture.

Your first lecture is scheduled for 10 a.m. Tuesday the 17th July and on Thursday the 19th you are asked to lecture at 9 a.m. instead of 10 a.m. because the students have an invitation into the country for the afternoon which necessitates of an early start.

If I have left out anything which you would like to know, please write and ask me.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
