Dear Miss Monkhouse.

I beg to thank you for your letter &
for paying me the
honour of wishing me
to speak at your Presentation ceremony on June 30.

I have however not been too well just

lately & I have been advised to reduce my
work to the minimum,
so must reluctantly
refuse.

As you know, it is not the giving of a lecture that is the difficulty, but the amount of preparation
that it entails.

Yrs: sincerely
F. Barrie Lambert
