23rd November 1928

Dear Madam,

I beg to enclose a cheque for forty four pounds seventeen shillings in respect of courses attended at Bedford College by the Health Visitor students from the College of Nursing during the proceeding part of the present term.

The reason for making the payment at this time is that all outstanding liabilities have to be met up to date, as the College of Nursing, Limited, is being wound up, and the new body, the College of Nursing Incorporated by Royal Charter, is coming into existence.

Yours faithfully,

R. M. Hallowes
