Miss Olive E. Monkhouse,
Secretary,
Bedford College for Women,
(University of London)
Regent's Park,
L O N D O N.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

I am preparing a new copy of the Prospectus for use during the interim period until the Florence Nightingale International Foundation is created. I am getting it out in the name of the Provisional Committee and am shortening it as much as possible as more changes will certainly have to be made in it when once the Foundation is established.

Would you be so kind as to let know what changes have been made in the curriculum and also let me have the new outlines for each subject if the lecturers wish any changes made in the outline as it now appears in the printed prospectus.

When I have the complete new draft ready I will send it to you for your approval before I lay it before the members of the Provisional Committee so that if there is anything in it which shocks Bedford you will let know very frankly.

It will not be possible to wait until January, when the Bedford College Committee meets, as we are already getting many demands for it owing to the interest created by the coming Foundation. I will, therefore, be very glad to have the changes in the curriculum and the corrected outlines as soon as possible.

With my very kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Maynard L. Carter
