

Miss HOLZER (Austria)

Returns to rural industrial area of Lower Austria, for Public Health and Social Work.

Miss LIPPERT (Austria)

Will return to Lower Austria as Public Health Worker and Social Service Worker in country districts.

Miss Inga von POOSCH (Austria)

Hopes to return to the country districts of Upper Austria in the service of Infant Life Protection, Guardianship and Probation work.

Miss TAYLOR (Canada)

Will return to the Department of Health of Toronto for general Public Health Work.

Miss WAMBEEK (Ceylon)

After further study in England she returns to Colombo in charge of Maternity & Child Welfare Centres under the Municipal Council of Colombo.

Miss ROUSAROVA (Czechoslovakia)

Rousarova

Will return as Instructor in Home Nursing Courses arranged by the Czech Red Cross.

Miss JOOSEP (Estonia)

Joosep

Returns to the Red Cross of Estonia to carry on Child Welfare work in the provinces.

Miss HAMBLIN (Gt. Britain)

Remains in England temporarily for Public Health work preparatory to going to India next year to carry on Public Health service.

Miss INOUYE (Japan)

Will travel on the Continent and return to Japan by way of America to study Public Health Services. Miss Inouye will work with the Japanese Red Cross on her return.

Miss UPMAN (Latvia) ork -

Returns under the direction of the Red Cross in Child Welfare work throughout the province of Latvia.

Miss MARTIN (South Africa)

Will return to South Africa to enter into Child Welfare work.

Miss Sanguan PHUANG-BHEJR (Siam) Fung Bear

Will work with Public Health Section of the Siamese Red Cross in field services, and will assist in teaching in the School of Public Health Nursing.

Miss ALBO (Spain)

Will return to Barcelona to develop Public Health work and Social Service in connection with the Government Departments with special reference to the Juvenile Court and Infant Life Protection and Clinics for Maternity and Child Welfare.

Miss ALBERTI (Austria)

Will return to the Rudolfinerhaus Hospital, Vienna.

Miss BENEDIKT (Austria)

Will return to her former hospital (Wilhelminenspital) in Vienna.

Miss ENGLAENDER (Austria)

Will return as Matron of a Children's Hospital under the City of Vienna.

Miss PUSCH (Germany)

Returns to the Red Cross Hospital and Training School for Nurses in Bremen, where she has been appointed Assistant Matron and Sister Tutor.

Miss LANE (Gt. Britain)

Returns to Guy's Hospital temporarily in the administrative office of the Matron.

Miss HILLS YOUNG (Gt. Britain)

Will study Tropical Diseases for two months and will then accept the appointment of Matron of Wad Medani in the Soudan.

Miss VIDACOVICH (Italy)

Has been appointed Matron of the Italian Red Cross Hospital Training School in Milan.

Miss REINEKE (Holland)

Has received an appointment as Sister in the Nurses' Training School of a Hospital in The Hague.

Miss ROTTEROWNA (Poland)

Rotterona

Will return as Sister Tutor in the Training School for Nurses, in connection with the Polish Red Cross.

Miss RIPOL (Spain)

Will return to the Red Cross Hospital, Barcelona, in charge of the Social Department.