27th January 1933.

Dear Colonel Parkinson,

Both Sir Arthur Stanley and Miss Jebb think it would be very delightful if we could get Professor Jamieson to speak at the certificate gathering for International students on June 26th. Will you therefore be kind enough to sound him on this matter? If you find that such an invitation would be acceptable, I will send him a formal invitation from the Council of Bedford College.

When you asked Dr. Boudreau, what did you suggest as the subject of his speech?

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
