Dear Miss Jebb,

It is very good of you to offer to bring again before your Council the question of fees for the special course of lectures on "Social Administration" by Mrs. Reid.

We should be very glad to accept the offer of a sum of £50 to be paid for the course irrespective of the number of students attending.

The question of whether we are training too many health visitors has been raised lately, which may mean a reduction in numbers in future. For this reason, we feel we could only undertake to ask for this course for two years, should your Council agree to offer the fee you suggested.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Parsons

This is in answer to a letter in which I asked Mr. Parsons of the C of N would he support the proposal that had been agreed to by the Trustees.
