

19th November 1938.

Dear Mr. Bonham-Carter,

Nightingale Scholar

I am now in a position to let you know the course of study which Miss Gould, the Nightingale Scholar, proposes to follow. She is taking two courses at Bedford College:

- | | |
|------|------------------------------|
| C.1. | "Modern Industrial Problems" |
| B.5. | "Ethical Principles". |

and five courses at the Institute of Education as follows:

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| A.5. | "Methods of Teaching (History)". |
| A.1. | "Principles of Education". |
| A.1. A.3. | "Educational Psychology". |
| | Also seminars with Professor Cavenagh and Professor Hamley. |

She has taken considerable trouble in ascertaining exactly what she wants to do and the final decisions have been made in accordance with the advice received both from here and the Institute of Education. If there are any other particulars you wish to know, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
