London N.W. I.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

I am so sorry to bother you: would you be so kind as to let me have your report before the end of this week if you can possibly manage it? Our meeting is next week, and I have to get copies made and circulated to the members of the committee. I shall also have to embody parts of your report in one I am preparing for the Executive Committee; otherwise I would not trouble you just now when I know you are very busy.

With my very kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Maynard L. Carter,
Chief, Nursing Division.
