Miss Olive Monkhouse, M.B.E., B.A., Secretary,
Bedford College for Women,
University of London.
LONDON.

28 AVR 1931 - 3288

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

I am enclosing a draft copy of the programme for your approval.

We have not yet heard if Mrs. Belmont is going to be in England at that time. She will not be able to represent the Board of Governors, as I originally suggested, as she is not a member of that Board. Sir Arthur Stanley has, however, written to Judge Payne inviting her as a member of the Central Committee of the American Red Cross. I have included her name on the programme for the time being but we can omit it if necessary when we get the printer's proofs. If there are any other alterations, would you be so kind as to let Miss Dorsey know.

You will be interested to hear that we have another application from Bulgaria but as we have not yet received the application forms we will not propose the candidate until the June meeting. At the present time it looks as though we were going to have 15 students, at least, for next year.

With my very kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Maynard L. Carter.
Chief, Nursing Division.
