

2nd November 1934.

Dear Mr. Bonham Carter,

I enclose the account for fees in respect of Miss Pamela Williamson, your Nightingale Scholar. Since last year the fees have been changed to £50 instead of £47.5.0, inclusive of all charges for practical work. You, I know, had the old fee last year by inadvertence, and we did not change it because it had already gone out. I write this explanation as I thought you might be surprised at seeing the change.

If there is any difficulty, please let me know.

Yours truly,

Secretary.
