Miss O. Monkhouse, M.B.E.,
Secretary,
Bedford College for Women,
Regent's Park,
N.W.1.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

We have had to cancel the International Nursing Course for an indefinite time. The students have returned and the house is being closed. By the end of this month we hope to have warehoused the furniture, and left the house.

After that period the management of any matters which arise concerning the Foundation has been left in the hands of Mrs. Carter, Sir Arthur Stanley and myself. I enclose a note of the permanent addresses of all three and will write to you finally before I finish up here and leave the house. Until then I am living here.

I shall be sending you, in a few days, a copy of the minutes of the Emergency Committee of the Committee of Management which met last Monday, for your files. You will see there the formal resolutions which were passed to deal with the emergency.

I am informing the Royal College of Nursing of this decision, and I take it that you and they will be informing the special lecturers who were appointed to give lectures to our students. These lecturers are:- Colonel Parkindon, Dr. Doyne Bell, Dr. Hadfield, and Dr. Gloyne - appointed by Bedford College - and Miss Monkhouse.

Dr. Fleming, Mrs. Seymer, Miss McEwan, Captain Brierley, Lt. Col. Parkes, Professor Cowell and Dr. Fenton appointed by the Royal College of Nursing.

With regard to Miss Bridges; as she is appointed by Bedford College and the Royal College of Nursing I take it that you will arrange with the College of Nursing about her release.

My Committee would like to suggest that Miss Bridges be asked to accept re-instatement if possible when the courses re-open, and they are willing to co-operate with you in any question of compensation for loss of notice of the termination of her appointment. Perhaps you would very kindly get into touch with me about this.

Miss Bridges was called up by the Civil Nursing Reserve on September 1st and is now working at Addenbrooke Hospital, Cambridge. She had, very fortunately, only just returned from her vacation.

Yours sincerely,

Olive Baggallay

Olive Baggallay.
Secretary.
