

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION

289A

- Miss M.W. Astley, will return to her post as Sister-Tutor in Auckland, New Zealand.
- Miss S.C. Bovill has just been appointed Assistant Matron, Manchester Royal Infirmary.
- Miss K. Bratt has been appointed Sister Tutor at Sahljren's General Hospital, Gothenburg, Sweden.
- Miss Y. Hentsch expects to return to her own Hospital in Lausanne in an administrative capacity.
- Miss G. Holden will return to the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission, Canada Hospital, Nasik, Bombay Presidency, India.
- Miss K. Laurinaviciute is returning to the Lithuanian Red Cross in an administrative capacity.
- Miss J. Manuel is returning to her post of Matron of the King Edward ^{Hospital} ~~in~~ Indore, C.I. India.
- Miss A.C. Neill is returning to a post of Supervisor at the Toronto General Hospital.
- Miss I.I. Pohjala has been appointed Director of the State Central Preliminary School of Nursing, Helsingfors, Finland.
- Miss M. Reynolds will later hold post of Matron.
- Miss K. Scrymgour returns to the Staff of the Adelaide Hospital, South Australia.
- Miss G.J. Sharpe returns to her post of Science Instructor, Toronto Western Hospital.
- Miss J.G. Thompson is working for the Diploma of Nursing, and will do temporary work at the University College Hospital.
- Miss K. Whitsed returns as Ward Sister to the Leicester Royal Infirmary.
- Miss I.M. Abelgas has been appointed Supervisor of Public Health Nurses under the Philippine Chapter of the American Red Cross.
- Miss E.R. Bridges Has been appointed Assistant Nurse Instructor in the Post-graduate School in Wellington, New Zealand.
- Miss V. Dunbar returns to her position of Assistant Director of the School of Nursing, University of California, San Francisco.
- Miss M.E. Flambert is working for the Health Visitors' Examination and