Miss O. Monkhouse, M.B.E., B.A.,
Secretary,
Bedford College for Women,
Regent's Park,
LONDON, N.W.1.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

I am enclosing application forms, etc, for four more International Students who have not yet been before the Organisation Committee.

Miss Gould is a student of the Nightingale Fund at St. Thomas's Hospital. She is anxious to substitute certain of the Courses in the International Course for work at the Institute of Education. Her application came before the Committee of Management of the Foundation at the last meeting, and they decided to recommend to the Organisation Committee that Miss Gould be treated as an exceptional student and be allowed to do certain work at the Institute of Education under the Collegiate Scheme.

I do not think there is anything, that I know of, that has to come before the Organisation Committee beyond the ordinary business.

Yours sincerely,

Olive Baggallay
