20th May 1932.

Dear Miss Lloyd Still,

In reply to your letter of the 11th May, I am directed to say, on behalf of the Committee for the Organisation of Courses for International Students, that they would greatly regret the loss of your services on their committee and that I was given instructions to take care in future not to arrange meetings on any Tuesday earlier than 5 p.m. It is very much hoped that under these conditions you will consent to retain your seat on the committee.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
