

March 31st 1938

Dear Miss Baggallay,

I am sorry to worry you while you are away on your holiday, but I had hoped to have heard from you before you went about possible speakers for the Presentation of Certificates. You were, I believe, going to see Sir Arthur Stanley, and I do not like to take any steps until I know what you decided with him. I asked Miss Grace but she did not know.

The other name mentioned by the Committee will, I understand, not be what is wanted.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.

^x mac.