

SPECIAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE IN NURSING STUDIESConstitution

- (a) Appointed and Recognised Teachers in Nursing Studies.
- (b) Representatives of the following Boards of Studies and Special Advisory Committees (numbers shown in brackets):
  - Biochemistry (1)
  - Biometry and Medical Statistics (representative to be a Teacher in Statistics as applied to Medicine) (1)
  - Community Medicine (1)
  - Human Anatomy and Morphology (1)
  - Medicine (representatives to include teachers in Psychiatry, Paediatrics and Geriatrics) (4)
  - Obstetrics and Gynaecology (1)
  - Pharmacology (1)
  - Psychology (2)
  - Physiology (1)
  - Social Administration (1)
  - Sociology (1)
  - Surgery (representatives to include a teacher of Anaesthetics) (2)
- (c) Other persons (to a maximum of 10) qualified to assist in the work to include representatives from:
  - (1) Advisory Committee on the Nursing and Sister Tutor's Diploma (University of London - Extra-Mural Diploma)
  - (2) Royal College of Nursing
  - (3) General Nursing Council (to be, the Institute of Advanced Nursing Education)
  - (4) The NHS (to include the Regional Nursing Officers)
  - (5) The Director of Clinical Teaching in a School of Nursing
- (d) Up to six other Teachers of the University qualified to assist in the work of the Committee.