18th October 1933.

Dear Mrs. Carter,

Fees for International Students for the session 1932-33

In reply to your letter of the 17th October, £30 is due in repayment to the League of Red Cross Societies on behalf of Miss Nel and Miss Weiss (£15 each). You mention Miss Wickham in your letter but not Miss Weiss. Miss Wickham in my records stands as a Nightingale scholar and hitherto I have made returns of grants for these scholars direct to the Nightingale Fund, and I shall do so forthis year unless I hear from you that you have made other arrangements with the Nightingale Fund.

On hearing from you with regard to these students, I will send a cheque for repayment of fees.

Students for the session 1933-34

I enclose an account for the fees for students for 1933-34, 17 students at £50 each. In this account I have again excluded the Nightingale scholar but if I am wrong in doing this, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
