Miss Olive E. Monkhouse, M.B.E., B.A.,
Secretary, Bedford College for Women,
(University of London),
Regent's Park,
L O N D O N. N.W.1.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

The names of the speakers for the Presentation of Certificates are Miss A.G. Masarykova, President of the Czechoslovak Red Cross; Dr. Boudreau, Director of the Health Section, League of Nations and Mme Hagiwara, Superintendent of Nurses, Japanese Red Cross Central Hospital, Tokio and President of the National Nurses' Association of Japan.

The date selected for the Presentation - June 27th - is not convenient for Sir Arthur Stanley. The 26th would suit him and would also be very convenient for the League. Would that date suit Bedford College?

The Secretary General is writing to invite Miss Masarykova and we will write also to the Japanese Red Cross with reference to Mme Hagiwara. Should they be in agreement with the suggestion, I think it would be nice for an invitation to go direct to her from the Council of Bedford College also. I think that it was arranged at the meeting that Colonel Parkinson write to Dr. Boudreau in order to see if he will be able to accept the invitation which Bedford College would send him.

We will let you know immediately we have replies to our letters.

With kindest regards.

Yours sincerely,

Maynard L. Carter
Maynard L. Carter
Chief, Nursing Division.
