

4th November 1929.

Dear Miss Palmer,

After the payment of your tuition fees there is a balance of £5.9.0 on your scholarship.

Is there any probability of your requiring this money for extra lectures or tuition, in which case we could retain the money for the present? If not would it be convenient to you to have the use of it now for your other college expenses?

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.