

23rd January 1931.

Dear Miss Hallowes,

I am writing to ask whether it would be possible for you to change the day and time of your lectures on "Hospital Nursing" from Thursday at 6 p.m. back to the original time of Fridays at 9 a.m. I am very sorry to ask you to do this if it should not be quite convenient, but the time as at present arranged is almost impossible for the International students who have a lecture which they have to attend at this College until 5.30 p.m. after attending lectures at the College of Nursing all the afternoon and Mrs. Reid knows them to be quite unfit to take another lecture at 6 p.m. We should be grateful if you could change the date and time for this year and perhaps before arrangements are made for next year you would be good enough to consult with us, so that the time agreed upon may be mutually convenient.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary of the Organisation
Committee.
