Miss Monkhouse,
Bedford College for Women,
Regent's Park,
LONDON N.W.I.

Dear Miss Monkhouse,

I feel sure that you have heard from Mrs. Reid of the Conference for Social Workers, which is being held in Paris on July 8th to 13th.

You have shown such a very great interest in our work at Bedford College, the Secretary General wonders if you would care to take the opportunity to attend this Conference, and at the same time visit Headquarters as the guest of the League, in order to become more closely acquainted with our work.

The usual allowance granted by the League is 2nd class return travelling expenses from London to Paris, and £ 5 a day.

I hope very much that you will be free from College at this time; we shall be very pleased to book you a room, if you will kindly let us know.

With my very kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Maynard L. Carter,
Chief, Nursing Division.
