

196E

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTSCourse for Nurse Administrators & Teachers in Schools of NursingPRACTICAL WORK during EASTER VACATION

Several of the students went abroad for practical experience during the Easter vacation.

Miss Neill) visited Sweden, Finland, Poland and Germany, and Miss Sharpe) were away from March 26th to April 19th.

Miss Bratt) visited Paris, where a programme was arranged for Miss Pohjala) them by Mrs. Carter, and Brussels, where they saw Miss Thompson) the new School of Nursing under Mlle. Mechelynck.

On their return to England, Miss Bratt and Miss Pohjala spent a week at the Leicester Royal Infirmary, studying the teaching in the nursing school, and the pre-nursing educational scheme of the city, and also spent one day at King's College Hospital to study the intelligence tests used for all prospective candidates to that nursing school.

Miss Whitsed visited Brussels, Vienna, Budapest, Nuremberg and Dresden, studying the organisation and teaching in the nursing schools in those cities.

Miss Astley spent a few days in Brussels with Mlle. Mechelynck and then ten days at the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary.

Miss Bovill) spent twelve days at the Glasgow Royal Infirmary, Miss Hentsch) and then had a week at the Birmingham General Hospital.

Miss Hentsch, in addition, went to the Leicester Royal Infirmary for a few days.

Miss Laurinaviciute spent a few days at St. Thomas's Hospital, ten days in Paris, and a week at Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge.

Miss Manuel was at St. Thomas's Hospital and Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, with Miss Laurinaviciute. She also spent ten days at the Lord Mayor Treloar Cripples' Hospital, Alton, and a day at Queen Charlotte's Hospital, to see the English midwifery methods.

Miss Reynolds spent five days at St. Thomas's Hospital, and then had twelve days in Birmingham, at both the General Hospital and the Dudley Road Hospital, under the local authority.

Miss Scrymgour was at St. Thomas's Hospital with Miss Reynolds, and at the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary with Miss Astley. She spent a few days at the Middlesex Hospital studying teaching methods there, and also had a day with the Queen's District Nurses.

Miss Holden had hoped to go abroad with the two Canadian students, but her health prevented her. She did, however, see something of the organisation and teaching at the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary and the Princess Margaret Rose Orthopaedic Hospital while she was staying with friends in Edinburgh.