8th November 1934.

Dear Dame Alicia,

Thank you for your letter of October 15th telling me that the Committee of Management of the Florence Nightingale International Foundation have resolved that, without prejudice to the future, they would agree to pay, until further notice, to Bedford College for Women, the sum of £50 per annum (being 10% of Miss Baggallay's total salary) to be allocated to her superannuation policy under the Federated Superannuation System for Universities. The situation is therefore as follows:-

The Foundation will pay to Bedford College:

Contribution to Miss Baggallay's salary as Tutor to the Health Visitors	£200
Contribution for pension on Miss Baggallay's total salary of £500 at 10%	50
Deduction at 5% from Miss Baggallay's salary of £300 paid to her by the Foundation as Secretary of the Committee of Management	15
	£265

Will you be good enough to let me know how it is proposed to pay this money? Pension premiums have to be paid in advance by Bedford College.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
